

SUMMER 2018 MAA NEWSLETTER

Congratulations to all who participated in the Spring Show – despite the very “un-spring-like” weather it was a great success and our fourth year in a row selling-out Vernissage tickets! We raised $527 for ROSSS and donated an additional $500 to YOMA; both groups are extremely grateful for our support.

Special thanks to the publicity team headed by Bonnie McQuillan for bringing in lots of visitors, Sheila King for her promotion of vernissage tickets and to Brian Graham for a smooth and easy purchasing experience for our customers (not to mention a very fast mail-out of those cheques!). Thanks to all who helped with setup, take-down and clean-up, and to the many others whose contributions made the weekend a success.

UPCOMING MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES:

May 2, 2018: Pam Thompson - Pam Thompson, docent with the National Gallery of Canada, and resident of nearby Stonebridge, will give a presentation on the 150th Anniversary Exhibit, “Our Masterpieces, Our Stories”, at the National Gallery.

This completely new exhibit space ‘offers an unprecedented panorama of the art of our country’. Commencing with the Indigenous Gallery, Pam will highlight early Canadian artists, the founding of the National Gallery, Group of 7, Contemporary Art and more.

It’s ‘Canadian Art History 101’ - you won’t want to miss it.

June 5, 2018: Our June meeting will be a pot-luck social. MAA will provide hamburgers and sausages for barbequing; coffee, tea and a non-alcoholic beverage will also be provided.

Where: Jaynie Coulterman’s house; 5602 Goddard St., Manotick
When: Tuesday, June 5 – we will start at 6:30pm instead of our usual 7:30
What to bring: Your spouse/partner/guest
Lawn chair(s)
An appetizer/salad/dessert (a sign-up sheet will be available at the May meeting)
Your own wine/beer etc if desired

Please sign-up at the May meeting or RSVP to president@manotickart.ca.

Paint-Ins: Paint-Ins continue on Thursdays between 9:30am – 12:30pm at Manotick United Church (5567 Manotick Main St.) The last paint-in of the season will be Thursday May 31.

Plein-Air Painting (aka Paint-Outs): Will begin in early June. If you would like to be included in the email list notifying you of weekly paint-out locations, send an email to Charlie Spratt at: charles.spratt@sympatico.ca

Exhibit Opportunity at “Good Eats”:

The busy, hip café, Good Eats, soon to re-locate to 473 Albert St between Bay and Bronson, will launch a gallery program this summer. Its new location will have both street and building access in the front of an 8-story office building, near all the new offices, condos and housing of LeBreton Flats.

For $50 (including HST), and no commission, you can show your work in this gallery for a month. Artists will have sole responsibility to hang and take down the show. The restaurant is available for openings; Good Eats Café owners will do all they can to help you have a successful show.

See call for artists attached to this newsletter.
